In War's Wake

CRASSH Research Network 2021-2022

Contesting fortress Europe:

Liquid violence and invisible war in the Mediterranean

Differently from accounts of civil war, internecine violence and intra-national conflict that we have explored so far in the IWW Network, this academics-activists roundtable will reason upon extended notions of “war” and “conflict” by examining spatially the mobile and transnational counter-narratives of bordering, departure, arrival, anti-blackness, human solidarity, death and life, across the liquid and contested geography of the Mediterranean Sea.
