

MULTICOLOURED AND MELODIOUS DIMENSIONS OF THE AMERICAS: MUSIC, COLOUR AND CRAFT PLAYSHOP

CAPUCHINO AND CONDOR
COME AND JOIN US!

SUNDAY 23 APRIL
10AM - 1PM

MUSEUM OF ARCHAEOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY
DOWNING STREET, CAMBRIDGE
CB2 3DZ

SUMMARY

A playful workshop in Spanish filled with Latin American heritage studies relating to the senses, convened by the interdisciplinary Multidimensional Dialogues research network and the Archaeology of the Americas Group, University of Cambridge, which is invested in the study of archaeology, history, and art history.

Contact:
Dr Jimena Lobo Guerrero Arenas, jl2283@cam.ac.uk
Dr Joshua Fitzgerald, jf704@cam.ac.uk

WE WILL HAVE:

- HANDS-ON GUIDED ACTIVITIES THAT WILL STIMULATE YOUNG LEARNERS AND THEIR CURRICULA TO ENLIVEN LINGUISTICS AND TO CATALYSE NEW EDUCATIONAL OUTCOMES.
- INNOVATIVE IN-PERSON MUSICAL PERFORMANCE BY AN ETHNOMUSICOLOGIST AND GUEST SPEAKERS FROM THE RESEARCH TEAM.
- ARTS-AND-CRAFTS ACTIVITIES + DISCUSSIONS ABOUT SENSES AND LANGUAGE LED BY PROFESSIONALS.
- A TOUR TO MAA'S 2023 EXHIBITION "COLOUR: ART, SCIENCE AND POWER"

AIMS

- The workshop will serve Escuelita's Music and Arts programmes.
- Spanish speakers and learners will be inspired and motivated to further their multilingual abilities.
- Children will discover new ways of engaging with museum objects whilst strengthen their communication skills.
- The use of crafts and practical activities will emphasise the importance of learning through the senses.